Belton 4th of July parade to honor troops

by Paul Romer

Published June 10, 2006

BELTON - The Belton Chamber of Commerce officially announced the theme for this year's Fourth of July parade at a media luncheon on Friday.

The parade theme will be Faces of Freedom - Celebrating Fort Hood and their Families.

Participants in the parade are encouraged to incorporate the theme in their entry.

Applications to participate in the parade - which in the past has featured floats, bands, and decorated bicycles and cars - are available at the chamber office at 412 E. Central Avenue or online at www.rodeobelton.com.

The parade will begin on Main Street and 10th Avenue at 10 a.m.

Parade participants must register and attend one of two parade meetings: 7 p.m. Thursday, June 15, or 10 a.m. Saturday, June 17. Both meetings will be held at Yettie Polk Park, 101 S. Davis St. in Belton.

Parade registration is due Friday, June 16. Participants that register by Monday, June 12, will receive a reduced rate.

While the parade is a large part of the Fourth of July celebration that Belton has hosted for 82 years, it is not the only event the city has planned during the holiday.
